

Dear Valued Clients,

We are reaching out to let you know our hospital will be temporarily closed while we undergo unforeseen facility maintenance effective Saturday, June 3rd. We are anticipating being closed through the 4th of July; and we will be sure to update you with a more accurate timeline as soon as we receive one.

During our closure, you will still be able to request prescription refills through Sea Girt Animal Hospital's online pharmacy through our website.

As always, the happiness and well-being of our clients and patients remains our team's top priority. With that being said, we have put together the following list of hospitals that are equipped to step in for your pet's needs while we are closed:
